Additional Notes (please read before returning your 2022 membership form):

0. 1. Members may provide the MABA Executive Committee with information that they do not wish to have published in the printed Directory or on the website. This information may include details such as the business' physical address, alternate phone numbers or email addresses. If you have information that is not to be published, be sure to indicate those items clearly on page 1 before returning it! Unpublished information will only be used for communication between the MABA Executive Committee or Webmaster and the MABA member. It will not be disclosed to anyone else, or used for any other purpose.
0. 2. MABA Memberships run on a calendar year—from January 1 through December 31. However, new memberships received after September 30, will be considered paid in full through December 31 of the following year.
0. 3. Memberships must be paid in full before January 31 to be included in the printed annual MABA Directory.
0. 4. The MABA will periodically send email messages to members with announcements of upcoming events, notices of meeting changes or other information of interest. If you prefer not to receive such emails, please notify the MABA Webmaster at webmaster@maba-online.com.
0. 5. Information on the MABA website can be added or changed at any time by notifying webmaster@maba-online.com.
0. 6. Each listing on the MABA website has space for descriptive information for members to provide details about their business. If you wish to add additional information to your MABA listing, which will help customers find you and boost your search engine ranking, please contact the MABA Webmaster by email at webmaster@maba-online.com. This information can be added or changed at any time.
